- carried

Old Business

- Discussed training for Local Board of Review Training. Brady will need to be trained, Mitchell probably needs to renew. Meeting April 6 at 10:15 AM at the library.
- Don Schroeder wanted to know what the Board thought about the possibility of extending tar to his place when the county paves to their driveway at the new county shop. The other property owners have not signed up to pay anything. He still needs to speak with Egges. Board will table discussion until know what the price is, bids are supposed to be let April 19th.

New Business

- Received proposed contracts for summer blading and ditch mowing from Wells Construction, $95/hour and $80/hr respectively. Board approved.
- Received bid for gravel from Egges, $8.60/ton. Board approved.
- Discussion on Fire Department meeting. No new trucks or anything of significant interest; have documents noting number of calls, costs, etc.

- Concern with Property Owner pushing snow in middle of the road over by Connor Egges – Mitchell will contact them; let them know they can't leave snow in the middle of the road. Need to get into the ditch.
- Discussion on large snowbanks – will have Egges go out with their blower on the payloaders to clear high banks.
